- Minimal intervention and sustainability are cornerstones of the operation, stemming from an intention to make place-based wines that are a true expression of the land and vines they come from.
- Winemaker Aaron Huertas grew up in vineyards as a child in Rioja watching his grandfather make wine. At the age of 9 he made his first wine and at the age of 22 he graduated #1 in his class from the department of oenology at the prestigious University of Madrid. Having worked as winemaker at Finca Allende, Finca Nueva, and González Byass, he was offered a job making wine for the omnipresent consultant Michele Roland, an offer which he turned down to pursue his own path in making wine. He chose to work accept an offer to work with Tres Raices in 2022 being inspired by their dedication to making exceptional wines, framing elegantly without compromise, and supporting all aspects of the winery with equipment that supports the expression of nuance in every harvest.

2025 Sauvignon Blanc - Tres Raices

Tasting Notes and Drinking Window:

A bright and expressive Sauvignon Blanc defined by poise and clarity, this wine reflects its high-elevation, low-latitude origins through vibrant acidity and finely tuned tropical nuance. Balance is its guiding principle, steering clear of the overt herbaceousness often found in California examples and the exuberant passion fruit and kiwi character typical of New Zealand styles. Instead, it draws inspiration from the more restrained French expression, offering notes of lime zest and grapefruit layered with subtle jalapeño, slate, and white peach. Immediately appealing yet quietly complex, it is a pleasure to enjoy now, with the promise of even greater harmony after a year of bottle age.
