- Minimal intervention and sustainability are cornerstones of the operation, stemming from an intention to make place-based wines that are a true expression of the land and vines they come from.
- Winemaker Aaron Huertas grew up in vineyards as a child in Rioja watching his grandfather make wine. Having worked as winemaker at Finca Allende, Finca Nueva, and González Byass, he was offered a job making wine for the omnipresent consultant Michele Roland, an offer which he turned down to pursue his own path in making wine. He chose to work accept an offer to work with Tres Raices in 2022 being inspired by their dedication to making exceptional wines, framing elegantly without compromise, and supporting all aspects of the winery with equipment that supports the expression of nuance in every harvest.

2023 Nebbiolo Sangiovese - Tres Raices

Tasting Notes and Drinking Window:

At first glance, the blend may seem improbable—but surrender to it and be rewarded. In wine, the most compelling expressions are those where place truly speaks, and this singular pairing, found nowhere else in the world, underscores the significance of its origin. Rich and bold yet remarkably weightless, the wine's seamless balance promises graceful aging—though resisting the temptation to enjoy it young may prove the greater challenge.
